Monthly fraud newsletter

The latest newsletter can be read by clicking the link below. This month highlights a Royal Mail fake delivery note, a new anti-virus scam and welcome news about Western Union's refund to victims of fraud.

We would like to remind everyone to be suspicious of all telephone calls claiming to be from banks, companies or individuals trying to find out about their finances or bank details.

As always, we encourage everyone to be vigilant and warn others who may be vulnerable to any type of fraud.
